THE NAUGHTY PEOPLE.

The Raleigh Register, the Scott-Seward organ of this State, told the people just before the election that in voting for the Democratic candidate for Governor they would vote as follows:

"REMEMBER, that by voting for Reid, you support a man who voted for the Wilmot Proviso, and virtually endorse Franklin Pierce, who loathes the Fugitive Slave Law!

By voting for Reid you vote away the portion of

Carolina against Gen, Scott,

OUT FOR WEBSTER AND GRAHAM!

It will be seen, by the following, that the veteran Editor of the Wilmington Commercial refuses to portant that we copy it entire:

"To THE PUPLIC. At the request of many of our around which they invite the friends of the Constitution to rally, in the Presidential contest. We take this step at the request of those Whigs who believe there should be manhood in mankind; adherence to political principles-and the love of country and the fear of God, in the discharge of their public duties. They do but assert a sentiment greatly pervading the Southern mind and heart, at the present, and almost universal in North Carolina, previously to the late nomination. They regret that they cannot act with their political brethren—but believe they have taken the only ground upon which the rights of the South can be vindicated; her institutions sustained, and the Union of the States preserved. If they are to fall, they will be crushed by the falling pillars of the Constitution, to which they will cling to the last. But what will be accomplished by this movement? A matter of momentous import. The anti-Scott Whigs will have an opportunity of asserting their principles. And is this nothing? Then the world's history is nothing, in all those phases that tell of de-votion to truth and patriotism. Then is the history of those who perished for peligious truth; those who have, in various ages arrested the march of tyranny, and fallen in the harness of freedom while contending for the rights of man; those who loved their country and upheld her interests and sustained her honor through peril and disaster; those who have resisted the currents of popular delusion, because they ran counter to the principles of universal freedom and the will of God-all these are but the tales of idiots, if it be nothing of to stand up for apparent rights, based on the solid foundations of Truth and Reason, as do the anti-Scott Whigs on the present occasion.

What was truth in May last, is truth at the present time-what was correct principles then will certainly be till November. We all recollect how violently Mr. Mangum was denounced for giving the State of North Carolina to Scott, Seward and Co. We believe every Whig paper in the State condemned him in severe terms. And yet, because a few South-ern men betrayed the trust reposed in them by their constituents, and "sold their birth-right for a mess of pottage," we are required to do just as Mr. Mangum did. We are required to swell the Free-Soil and Abolition triumph, though obtained by treachery and defection, in order to sustain a candidate for the Premately entitled, and which is so so essential to the sidency supposed to be "available." And now all that the Scott Whigs can justly say to our friends is, you must change, because we changed. It cannot be that any principle is desecrated, because it was a principle with the Whig party, before the nomination, that Southern Institutions should be made secure by resisting the influences of the Free-Soilism and Abolitionism that nominated Scott. No one pretended to deny, before the nomination, that Seward, Greely and Co., were the political Godfathers of Scott. What has charged the character of Scott's supporters, or altered the nature of his affinities? Nothing. These are all in active life and being, and are only clouded and smothered by the office-seekers and spoils hunters of the Whig party, and their supporters, who are more anxious about the success of the party than the destiny of the Republic, or the safety of Southern

It is said that the friends of Scott in the Convention did not care so much about him, but only wanted him as the available instrument in crushing Fill-"most sacred principle of Republican government"! more. But the supporters of Scott say, we went into Convention and are bound by its decision, because that tee appointed to address Col. King, consists of the body has the Compromise in its platform. Where two parties are bound in a matter, are they not mutually obliged to comply with the obligations? The Scott Whigs openly and shamelessly avow that they will not be bound by that platform; that they will not regard any of its provisions. Having sacrificed Fillmore, they "spit upon the platform," and will Esq., John Kornegay, Esq., Ingraham Rhodes, Esq., vote for Scott because they can elect him, they think, by military displays, platform or no platform. A meeting of the Stockholders of the Cape Fear and Deep River Navigation Company was held in Pittsborough on the 23d and 24th ult. From the Treasurer's report it appeared that only $224 14 remained in the treasury of the company. A committee of ways and means was elected by the company to take into consideration and report the best method of raising funds for the continuation of the work. The Committee afterwards reported, recommending that the Directors beauthorized and instructed to borrow, for the immediate use of the Company, the sum of thirty thousand dollars, and that to secure the Directors against loss, the stockholders enter into bonds, binding themselves in a sum not exceeding fifty per cent of the stock held by them. This recommendation was adopted.

We see by the Wilmington papers that the friends of the Cape Fear and Deep River Navigation Company in that place held a meeting on the 3d inst., responding to the above recommendation. A committee of three was appointed to prepare bonds and procure their execution by the stockholders in Wilmington. The Boston Post says "the Scott committee at Washington circulated at the north, by means of congressional franks, one hundred thousand copies of the Era, the abolition paper at Washington, with an article to prove that Pierce is a pro-slavery man. And the same committee guard the post office so effectually that, though it is known that their freesoil publications have been mailed for editors at the South, they never reach their destination!" The same committee are sending to the south thousands of copies of the abolition report of Gen. Pierce's New Boston speech, for the purpose of proving him an abolitionist! Such is the deceptive and fraudulent game which the federal managers are now playing to chea and deceive both sections of the country.
